

L,446 Community Health Programs & Activities

5.6m to improve Community Health

250+

School, Community & Clinical Partners

For more information about Children's Community Health, contact Annemarie.Kuchera @chp.edu where all children can grow into healthy

We work together with clinical and community partners to reduce health disparities and elevate quality of life for children and families in the communities where they live, learn and play.

Here is a snapshot of our 2022 efforts focused on health and prevention, clinical-community connections, family and social needs support, outreach, and education.

36,397 Students from 83 schools impacted by the Healthy Schools Program

1,840 Families & 2,847 children served by Family Care Connection programs & services

49

Schools received Healthy Schools tool kits to support wellness initiatives

13,072

Families provided with diapers, infant formula, car seats, education kits, food boxes, and other basic needs 197

Individuals received community-based mental & emotional health support

1,068

Moms with new babies engaged with Hello Baby maternal & infant health program

600

Children and caregivers participated in Reading Together early literacy program

173

Primary care clinical visits completed at the Hilltop Health Hub 2,092

Emergency food resources provided to children and families

372

Families connected to sustainable nutrition assistance programs 2,444

Free rides provided to and from medical appointments at Children's

1,377

School & community professionals educated on best practices in pediatric health

150

Children prescribed park use through Pittsburgh Parks Rx

1,226

Students participated in health education sessions during school and after-school programs

981 Children from 41
communities received care from the Ronald McDonald Care Mobile

3,300

Clinical services provided through the Ronald McDonald Caremobile

37

Pediatric medical residents trained with community partners on social factors that influence health 3,553

Vaccines administered to children and adults through school and community clinics

