

We work together with clinical and community partners to advance health equity and elevate quality of life for children and families in the communities where they live, learn and play.

Here is a snapshot of our 2023 efforts focused on:

- Supporting & strengthening families
- Increasing access to care
- Promoting early learning
- Partnering with community & healthcare providers
- Addressing basic needs
- Creating healthy schools & environments
- Encouraging healthy habits

1,581
Community Health
Programs & Activities

For more information about Children's Community Health, contact Annemarie.Kuchera@chp.edu

 $1,852 \text{ families } \&\ 3,019 \text{ children}$ served by Family Care Connection programs and services

 $47,004 \text{ students from } 80 \text{ schools} \\ \text{impacted by the Healthy Schools Program}$

1,658
moms with new babies engaged with Hello Baby maternal & infant health program families provided with diapers, infant formula, car seats, education kits, food resources & other basic needs

15 school partners recognized among America's Healthiest Schools

1,238
children and caregivers participated in Reading Together literacy program

776
students participated in health education sessions during school and after-school programs

1,544
children and caregivers
participated in Pittsburgh Parks Rx programs

UPMC Cill-prens

pediatric medical residents trained with community partners on social factors that influence health

1,314
school & community professionals educated on best practices in pediatric health

2,485
emergency food resources provided to children and families

FOOd Bank

705
families connected to sustainable nutrition assistance programs

1,130
free rides provided to and from medical appointments at Children's 300 primary care clinical visits completed at the Hilltop Health Hub

1,000 children from 51 communities received care through the Ronald McDonald Care Mobile

3,635
clinical services provided through the Ronald McDonald Care Mobile