Introduction

As the population continues to age, we are all seeing a tidal wave of older persons in our hospitals, clinics and nursing homes. Moreover, the fastest growing segment of the population comprises individuals above the age of 85 years. The purpose of our conference is to provide an evidence-based approach to help clinicians take exceptional care of these often-frail individuals.

Highlights

Speakers

- ▲ Handpicked by a multidisciplinary committee of clinicians from academics, practice, and the payer community. Selection was based on two criteria:
 - Expertise – which in most cases is nationally-recognized and often responsible for the advances relative to practice
 - Ability to convey information, in a practical, succinct, and entertaining way that will allow attendees to immediately incorporate lessons into their practice

Topics and Structure

- ▲ “Year in Review,” covering highlights of recent advances/controversies
- ▲ State of the Art updates on common geriatric conditions, and tailored to each setting, i.e., office, hospital, home, nursing home
- ▲ Effectively manage the geriatric syndromes including Falls, Osteoporosis, Voiding Dysfunction and Retention, Depression and Dementia
- ▲ Clinically relevant topics with evidence-based solutions on electrolyte disorders, common infections, anemia, kidney disease, orthostatic hypotension and pressure ulcers
- ▲ Geriatric Cardiology Symposium including heart failure, AFib, aortic stenosis, hypertension
- ▲ “Ask the Expert” sessions on Oncology, Rheumatology, Lung Disease, and Foot/Ankle Problems
- ▲ Multiple breakout sessions allowing attendees to design their own course, affording close interactions with experts on challenging topics and real-world cases
- ▲ Board Review for Clinicians in a Q & A format
- ▲ Special dinner symposium: clinical cases will be presented on cardiology topics with expert Cardiologists leading the discussion – audience participation is expected

Learning Objectives

At the end of this course, participants should be able to:

- ▲ Provide evidence-based updates for common geriatric disorders
- ▲ Understand how the approach to geriatric care differs by clinical setting
- ▲ Understand innovative new initiatives and programs to improve the care of the older patient
- ▲ Get answers to specific clinical questions from their own practice

Who Should Attend

This course is designed for family practitioners, internists, geriatricians, and other health care professionals who provide care to older adults. Previous attendees will also be interested because of the conference's continually changing topics, speakers and approach.
