SNAP

To apply for SNAP benefits online, individuals can create a MyCOMPASS account at www.compass.state.pa.us. Through this portal, they can submit applications, complete renewals, and manage their information digitally.

For those without internet access, a paper application can be requested by contacting their local County Assistance Office.

After the application is received, a caseworker will reach out to conduct a required phone interview. Applicants should provide a working phone number to ensure a timely response—often the same day the application is processed.

WIC

The Pennsylvania Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) has been helping families thrive since 1974 by offering nutrition education, breastfeeding support, referrals to health and social services, and access to healthy foods. Through WIC, pregnant women, mothers, and caregivers of infants and young children can learn how to support their family's health with good nutrition.
