Rights and Responsibilities in Cases of Partner Violence

Partner Violence includes: sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking and can occur in families of all races, religions, sexual orientation, economic and social backgrounds. Both men and women can be victims of partner violence. You are considered a victim if your partner abuses you physically, sexually, or emotionally and/or attempts to control your behavior, your decisions, and choice of friends.

It is important to remember, that no victim is ever to blame for any act of violence, abuse, or assault.

Victims' Rights

The UPMC Schools of Nursing exercises a zero-tolerance policy for acts of partner violence including: sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking; whether the act occurs on or off campus.

Throughout this guide, the UPMC Schools of Nursing will inform you of policies and procedures that address partner violence including: sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking. The policies and procedures in place apply equally to all students at the UPMC Schools of Nursing. The UPMC Schools of Nursing exercises a Reporting Partner Violence and Non-Retaliation Policy to eliminate retaliation, intimidation, coercion, or discrimination against any individual for exercising his or her rights or responsibilities as a victim of partner violence.
