

The UPMC logo is displayed in white, serif, all-caps font on a dark blue background. The background of the entire top half of the page is a photograph of the Magee-Womens Hospital building, which features a prominent glass facade reflecting the sky and surrounding greenery. The building's name, "Magee-Womens Hospital", is visible on a yellowish-orange section of the facade.

MAGEE-WOMENS HOSPITAL OF UPMC

- Specialized expertise in women's health across the lifespan, including prenatal and postnatal health, mid-life and menopausal services, and end-of-life care
- One of the busiest obstetrics programs in the country, with nearly 10,000 babies born each year
- Treats more than 1,500 seriously or critically ill babies each year in the highest volume neonatal intensive care unit in Pennsylvania and one of the largest in the country
- Collaborates with Magee-Womens Research Institute, one of the largest research institutes in the U.S. devoted exclusively to women's health research
- One of the first teaching facilities recognized as a National Center of Excellence in Women's Health by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
- Offers women comprehensive and compassionate outpatient care for opioid addiction in a first-of-its-kind Pregnancy Recovery Center
- One of the busiest clinical sites in the country for women's cancer, with nurses, doctors, and support programs all focused on women's cancer
- Blend of clinical expertise and innovative research, dedicated to breast cancer prevention and treatment, ensures patients receive the most comprehensive breast care available

* U.S. News & World Report rankings are based on UPMC Presbyterian Shadyside data